UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, July 31 .- Before Judge

Betts.

James Hill and Peter Ward, seamen, were tried for attempting to make a revolt on board the brig Triumph, Moxen master, on her late voyage from New Orleans to this port. It was proved that they were both insubordinate and disobeyed orders during the voyage, and that Hill called the Captain and Hill called the Captain and Hill states him on the month, and perpetrated other outrages. The jury found them both guilty.

James Byrne was tried for an assault and battery with a dangerous weapon on one of the crew of the ship Scotiand, to which the accused also was attached. It appeared that an affray pook place between the parties, and that Byrne drew his knile and stabbed Martin severely and dangerously in the lower part of the abitamen. The offence was proved by several of the Scot land's crew, and the jury found Byrne guilty.

POLICE OFFICE.—Stealing from a Stranger.—A German named George Smith, of 166 Broome st, near Attorney, went, as he stated, on Friday night to the western portion of the city, and at 2 o'clock in the morning, experiencing a difficulty in tracing his way, homeward, stepped into a small store and inquired of a white lemnle the nearest course to Broome st. She said she his way, homeward, stepped into a small store and inquired of a white lemale the nearest course to Broome at. She said size would show him, and conducted him into a house of had character in Anthony at near Chapel, where she said they had better wait until the rain had ceased, and went out, leaving him there. Some after, a write man attempted to get he watch, and actually broke his guard chain, when Smith put the watch and chain, worth S18, in his pocket. A colored female named Mary Simmons then came up, seized violently hold of Smith and held their, as also a pocket book containing $2, and his sik handker, city watchmen, came to the rescue, but the furtive parties had field. After daybreak in the morning Smith procured the colored girl Mary Simmons, and took how to the Police Office, where early six denied the whole affair of the their, and said Smith was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had been robbed before he came there; but she was drulk and had preventioned by the Sandard and the shortest and the public pare cant at 1; the prices of yesterday give about 5 per cant. Attempt to Impeach a Magistrate—On Saturday Mr. A. D. Russel, of counsel in of behalf Isaac J. Wood, complainant, presented before the three Judges of the Common Pleas in open Court, articles of impeachment against Milne Parker, Esq. one of the Special Justices (of the Lover Police Office) for divers illegal acts of official misconduct—as charged in said articles—and moved the Court for the allowance of an order calling on and moved the Court in the answare of a branch cannot said Justice. Parker to answer said charges and specifications, and that the Clerk be directed to call the County Court together on some certain day to be appointed by said Judges, for the trial of the accused on said articles. The Court ordered the papers to be handed up to them, and have taken the matter under ad-

Dismissals of City Marshals.—A complaint having been preferred against two of the City Marshals for malconduct in office, the Mayor has politely furnished us with the following facts of the case, and the action taken by him upon the subject:

for In the matter of the complaint of William W. Purdy vs. William W. Frame and John S. Magnes, City Marshals."

"The complaint against these two Marshals is that they were guilty of noisy, riotous and indecent conduct in the house of the complainant, calculated to excite a breach of the peace.

"The testimony shows that the two officers were at Harlem for the purpose of arresting Isaac J. Wood upon a bail piece.

"The testimony shows that the two officers were at Instead for the purpose of arresting Isaac J. Wood upon a bail piece. That it was necessary they should remain at Harlem all night: they went to the public house of Mr. Kellinger for the purpose of staying there. Mr. Kellinger could not accommodate them, and took them to his neighbor, the complainant, to sleep. Ata late hour they retired to bed, and, unsolicited, went into the bed-room of one of the family, where three females were un-dressing. They were ordered out, refused to go, searched among the clothes closets—one of them, Frame, stating he had a search-warrant for a brass cannon, when there was no such precept in his possession. After leaving the room and retiring to their own hed room they were very noisy and indecent in their conduct and their language, so much so that Mr. Purdy was chilged to wake up his neighbors, and to get assistance to put them out of his house. The excuse which the officers give for their conduct, part of which they admit, is, that they heard in the conduct of the room of the females—this however, is dedecent songs in the room of the femules—this, however, is de-nied by the other witnesses.

If true, it can afford no justification for the conduct of the officers. This conduct shows that the officers were wanting in that sense of propriety and love of order essential to the proper performance of the duties of their office. I therefore take their warrants from them."

CORONER'S OFFICE .- The Coroner on Saterday held an inquest at 185 Seventeenth at, on the body of William Henry Plugh, aged 25, a native of Bergen, N. J. a boatman attached to the steamer Mount Pleasant. The deceased was generally to the steamer Mount Pleasant. The deceased was generally sober and steady, but on Wednesday night late was at Langdon's, in Centre st. with a companion named Gardner, and went away intoxicated. As they were going to sleep on beard the steamboat Providence at the foot of Watt st. they went to the fire raging in Desbrosses street, where deceased remained, and Gardner went on beard. He was never seen afterwards until Saturday morning, when his body was found afloat in the dock, foot of Watt st. Verdicto of the jury, accidentally drowned.

There was a wound on the flesh of the lower jaw, supposed to have been got by falling, but did not cause death, or serious injury as Dr. Houselield opined.
